The Church According to Paul | Book Review — Conciliar Post

According to Paul, every believer has a function in the church, just as the different parts of a body have a specific function. The idea of a group of clergy taking responsibility for all Christian ministry while a mass of laypeople simply receive the benefits is totally foreign to Scripture .

What is the Church? It's Role & Purpose According to the Bible

The Church according to Paul: Rediscovering The Community ...

And so, writes Paul: "Unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ" (4:7). In the verses before us attention is drawn to the gifts that our ascended Lord has bestowed upon the members of His Church which is His body.

3. The Conduct and Duty of the Church (Ephesians 4-6 ...

Paul was concerned with how various churches supported each other, especially since each church is "the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it" (1 Corinthians 12:27). Paul praised the Philippians for sharing with him "in the matter of giving and receiving" (Philippians 4:15), which means they supported him financially so he could strengthen other churches.

What does the Bible teach about church structure ...

Paul refers to the church in their house—not a church building, but a body of believers. The church is the body of Christ, of which He is the head. Ephesians 1:22–23 says, "And God placed all things under his feet and appointed him to be head over everything for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills everything in every way."

But if we build according to Christ's principles, we get what God can build—a church that the gates of hades will not prevail against. In Ephesians 4:7-16, Paul teaches specifics about God's plan to build his church so we can get involved and do our part—but also so that we don't build according to any lesser plan.

13. God's Plan to Build the Church | Bible.org

The man involved in the 1 Corinthians 5 passage repented, and Paul later encouraged the church to restore him to full fellowship with the church (2 Corinthians 2:5–8). Unfortunately, disciplinary action, even when done correctly and in love, is not always successful in bringing about restoration.

What does the Bible say about church discipline ...

Amid conflicting ideas about what the church should be and do in a post-Christian climate, the missing voice is that of Paul. The New Testament's most prolific church planter, Paul faced diverse challenges as he worked to form congregations. Leading biblical scholar James Thompson examines Paul's ministry of planting and nurturing churches in the pre-Christian world to offer guidance for the ...

According to Ian Elmer, the fact that Andronicus and Junia are named as apostles suggests a priori that they were evangelists and church-planters like Paul. Some translators have rendered the name as the masculine "Junias", but Chrysostom seems clear: "Indeed, how great the wisdom of this woman must have been that she was even deemed worthy of the title apostle."
