I would like to write why I didn't like this play. (The book itself came to me in good time, and in excellent shape. I have no problems at all with the shipper, only with the book) The play dramatized a "prodigal son returns to the home" tale; only this time the "son" is an adult woman, a widow who has returned to working class, down at heel Wakefield, Massachusetts to attend to her brother's ...

Friday was Daffodil Day here in Australia. As a family, we too have been touched by the condition and recently lost a much-loved relative. This, the last weekend of the Australian winter, was the official fund-raiser for the Cancer Council, so I thought I should go out and find a daffodil that was not affected by last week's frosts.
